Tararira sport fishing

Iberá Provincial Nature Reserve

Spend a fishing day in exceptional lagoons surrounded by flora and fauna, fishing from the shore and by kayak, in the heart of the Iberá.

8-hour fishing day	Transfer from your lodging	Fishing from shore and kayak	Specialised guide	Gear included

The experience

A full day in the Iberá

I'm Hernán, passionate about fishing tarariras with artificial lures. I've lived all my life in the San Miguel department, in the heart of the Esteros del Iberá, and I've been fishing these lagoons since I was a child.

The day starts early, after breakfast at the lodging. We drive about 10 minutes to the fishing spot and explore several nearby lagoons, from the shore and by kayak, to reach the key spots where the best tarariras are.

At midday we go back to the lodging for lunch and a short rest, and in the afternoon we fish again until the last light of the day. We practise spinning, baitcasting and fly casting; if there are children in the group, we add bait fishing so everyone can enjoy it.
