Iber? Provincial Park

San Antonio Portal

Discover the most authentic essence of the Iberá, its wildlife, landscapes and local culture, in a unique natural setting just 25 km from San Miguel, Corrientes.

The experience

Authentic nature, very close

From San Miguel we travel 25 km along National Route 118 to the San Antonio Portal. Halfway we cross the San Antonio settlement, one of the few places in Corrientes where people aim to be self-sufficient, with crops, farm animals and traces of the old building techniques.

Along the way the landscapes change: native forests, wetlands, grasslands and bodies of water, together with the cattle ranching, forestry and agrosilvopastoral systems of the province.

An ideal outing to discover the most authentic essence of the Iberá, its wildlife, its landscapes and the local culture, in a unique and surprising natural setting.
